

NEWS RELEASE

29 January 2010

February Half Term Fun at Kent Life

Children and families are in for a fun time this February Half Term (Sat 13th to Sun 21st February) with the launch of a NEW Wildlife Discovery Trail at Kent's premier heritage farm attraction.

Just in time for the February Half Term, visitors are invited to open their eyes and minds to the wildlife around them by following the newly created Wildlife Discovery Trail. The trail is the latest addition to the 28 acres of fun which already exists at Kent Life, offering visitors both old and young, even more family fun than ever before.

Open from 10.00am – 4.00pm each day, the new Trail will offer youngsters the opportunity to learn what it is like to live in harmony with wild creatures, their habitat and life cycles. Coupled with the return of many of the attractions favourite animals to the fold including horses, pigs, goats, donkeys and sheep, this February Half Term promises to be one of the best yet!! With FREE tractor rides running through the holiday from 11.00am – 1.00pm* and a yummy treat for any young explorer who completes the mystery pig trail, there is no better time to visit Kent Life. With admission prices starting at just £3 for children (3 – 15 year olds, with under 3's for FREE), £4 for concessions and £5 for adults Kent Life offers family fun for everyone this Half Term!

For more information, visit www.kentlife.org.uk or call 01622 763936.

*Tractor rides subject to availability.

ENDS

For further media information or pictures please contact Nick Fletcher on 01904 527700 or email nfletcher@continuum-group.com