

Welcome to Kent

Welcome to Kent is a highly interactive, on-line training tool for the tourism and hospitality industry in the form of a quiz game.

Who is it intended for?

Absolutely everyone living and working in Kent who serves visitors to the county.

What will I gain from the training?

Welcome to Kent is designed to help users acquire new Kent product knowledge and customer service skills.

Participants make their way around a map of Kent answering questions in the form of text, audio and film. There are also links to best practice case studies and further information sources within the game.

Questions will be updated on a regular basis so participants can return to the game again and again.

How long does the training take?

Approximately 45 minutes

Do I need previous skills & knowledge?

No

Prices:

Purchasing a licence will enable all of your staff to access the training. Prices vary according to the number of staff in your business:

1 – 4 staff	£10.00
