JOHANNA JOINS KENT HOSPITALITY TEAM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KENT

Kent Hospitality is delighted to announce that Johanna Ashley-Down has just joined their conference team as Conference & Hospitality Co-ordinator.

Johanna, from Aylesham, will be responsible for the co-ordination of a wide range of national/international conferences and events at the University. In 2010, for example, Johanna's major conferences will include organising the British Psychological Society's Annual Conference on Forensic Psychology and the International Conference of the British Comparative Literature Association (both events will attract over 200 delegates).

Johanna brings with her some 10 years of event management experience, most recently with English Heritage at Eltham Palace and Dover Castle.

Of her new appointment Johanna said "I'm excited to join an award-winning team and look forward to contributing towards their continued success".

A photograph of Johanna is attached.
